The Conservatory

The Conservatory is for teens serious about the visual arts, media, music, theater and dance.

The program provides intermediate and advanced instruction in various arts disciplines to help participants develop and increase their skills and discover new talents.

Students who successfully complete this program provide themselves with the greatest probability of being accepted into the summer paid internship program and qualifying for increased wages.

This program is open to all youth ages 13 to 18 in Bridgeport.

Each class is held once per week for 2 hours. Classes will begin the first week in November. Weekly schedule will be set in September.
