

SGC Notes

March 21, 2022

In Attendance: Amy Broad, Carrie Ramanauskas, Lorie Daniel, Susan Beres, Loret Dubac-Shiplee, Jen Hayes, Christine Neary

Absent: Carla Fontes-Alers, Laura O'Shaughnessy, Paula Keegan, Keshana Wiggins, Denise Pitter, Ana Badolato

School Climate

- Staff and student events have been very positive.
- SEL Day was very successful. Older students worked on activities with and read to younger students.
- Paint Night was popular and successful
- Parent Square: From a parent's perspective, Loret gave positive feedback. Good communication tool (better than phone blasts.)
- Parents and volunteers back in the classroom; field trips have resumed
- Parent conferences next month: awaiting directive from Superintendent (announced that it will be hybrid on 3/23)

Upcoming Events

- Washington DC trip-April 12-14. Everyone must take a COVID test before going
- Literacy Night and STEM Night? Awaiting information from PAC (discussed the need for PAC members to be on SGC for communication/collaboration purposes)

Testing

- PSAT-March 23rd, 8th graders
- IAB test-March 23rd, 7th graders
- SBAC-May (dates and times TBD)

Membership

- Council consists of 5 teachers, 7 parents, 2 (?) community members
- Looking to have teacher elections in June and parent elections in November

New Business

- Playground-Looking into adding to current structure with appropriate equipment for PreK-2nd grade. Possible money from grants and/or COVID funds. Gate needs to be secured.

Next meeting: April 25th
